

I'm still a person

SPEAKER: FRANÇOISE BAYLIS

OUR SENSE OF SELF IS DEPENDENT ON memory
BELONGING
RECOGNITION
ARE INTEGRAL PARTS OF OUR BIOGRAPHY Relationships
PAST + PRESENT • PRIVATE + PUBLIC
• CLOSE + DISTANT
We need to have ENVIRONMENTS THAT NURTURE THOSE RELATIONSHIPS

WE EXIST AS PART OF extended communities,
AN EVER CHANGING WEB OF CONNECTIONS,
INTRICATE, FRAGILE & WOVEN
INTO ITS ENVIRONMENT

IN THE CONTEXT OF ELDER CARE
EVERY INTERACTION NURTURES
COMMUNITY & HELPS MAINTAIN
THIS FRAGILE STRUCTURE OR CONTRIBUTES TO BREAKING IT.

compassionate
person-centered
ELDER CARE

RECOVERING & HEALING
FROM THE SHAMEFUL REALITY
OF ELDER NEGLECT & ABUSE REQUIRES A COMMITMENT TO

earning back trust

WITH EACH PERSON, EACH FAMILY, DAY BY DAY WITH EVERY SINGLE DECISION & INTERACTION

The pandemic has proved that any changes we implement, must happen
GLOBALLY
otherwise we'll continue failing
