A Story

Hear the exciting story of planning for the new "Providence Living at the Views" discussed by Mark Blandford, President and CEO of Providence Living, and Jennifer Gibson, Executive Director, Strategy, Practice & Quality Seniors Care at PHC.

This is a story about "Designing for Dementia - to Ensure a Day Well Lived." Learn about this Village style model based on family style European Concepts and with a building design that incorporates nature and community into the site, enabling a therapeutic, dementia friendly environment. It is also a story about redesigning approaches to care.
