April 2022

The entries on this Resource List were submitted by Conference speakers and the Planning Committee. We hope you will find this resource useful.

Age and Ageing Journal's "Care Home Collection". Published in 2022 and included with permission from Age and Ageing Journal:

The collection outlines the technical issues that researchers face, by grouping together important feasibility trials conducted in the sector. It looks at the challenges of measuring quality of life and working with routine data in care homes. It brings together observational studies considering loneliness, functional dependency, stroke outcomes, prescribing and acute deterioration. Health services research in care homes is represented by two studies that demonstrate realist evaluation as a way to make sense of service innovations.
